LITERACY DAY

Bowden Grandview School celebrated Family Literacy Day by dressing up as their favorite book character. Can you guess who they are?

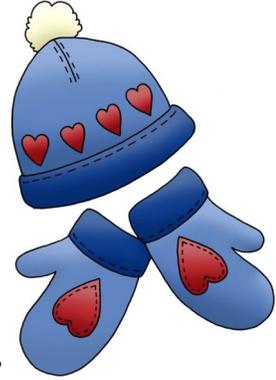

APPROPRIATE DRESS

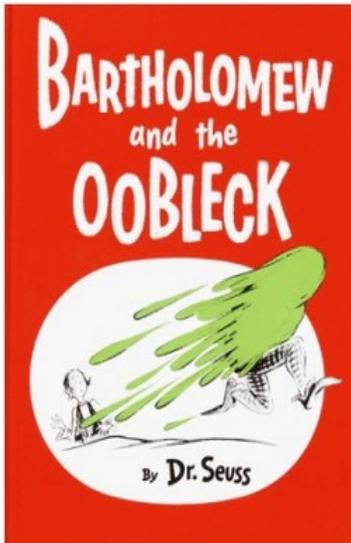

With the drastic change in temperatures we ask that you please send your children with proper winter attire: boots, winter coats, snow pants, mitts and toques. While we will have many indoor recesses to keep our students warm and safe, riding the bus and walking to and from school require proper winter wear. Thank-you for helping us teach our students (big and small!) about proper winter dress.

We also want to emphasize the importance of having students arrive at school after 8:20 a.m. Our doors are unlocked at 8:20 a.m., and it is important that children are not waiting out in the cold, especially with the extreme temperatures expected next week. Opening our doors at this time is for safety as we do not have adequate adult supervision before this time. When dropping children off, please keep them warm and in the vehicle until 8:20 a.m., and if sending them to school please ensure they are not waiting outside for extended periods of time.

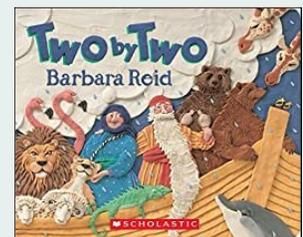

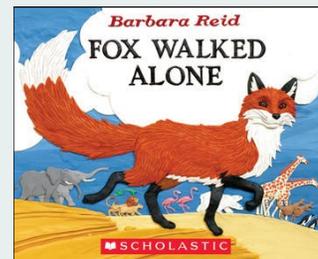

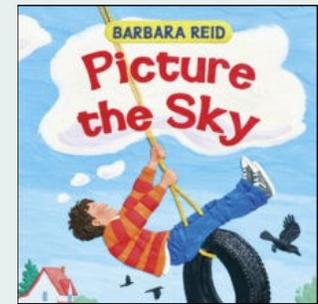

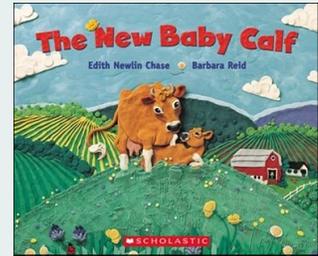

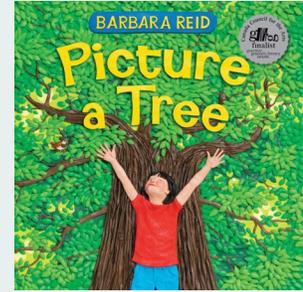

GRADE 2 AND THE OOBLECK

Grade 2 is exploring liquids in science! As part of a VERY hands-on experiment, each student made oobleck. Have you heard of it? It is a unique substance that has properties of both a solid and a liquid. It was a fun way to explore flow and viscosity... as well as celebrate literacy day with "Bartholomew and the Oobleck" by Dr. Seuss (originally written in 1949). Thank you to Mrs. Marshall, our special guest!

BARBARA REID

Grade 4 & 5 students were fortunate enough to attend a Family Literacy Day virtual event with Barbara Reid. Her theme this year is Travel the World Together (not literally of course). Barbara demonstrated how to use clay to create a picture and use everyday tools like a paper clip to mold the clay. She explained that it takes her approximately one year to build the pictures for one book. BGS students were thrilled to have an Award Winning Canadian Author give them a personal lesson.

A MESSAGE FROM THE SUPERINTENDENT

Sharing our values each day

Ensuring that our students are engaged in meaningful learning and encouraged to rise to new challenges is part of our mission in Chinook's Edge. This year, more than most others, our teachers and school staff have relied upon the core values that inform our work together, guide our relationships, and impact the potential of each student. We have all needed to shift our learning in several ways during this pandemic. We are able to rise to these challenges and accomplish great things together, because we share a firm foundation of values that help create a positive school culture.

Our Mission and Vision statements are a daily reminder of our most important values, which guide our work despite any challenges the pandemic may be creating. We recognize the uniqueness of every child in our care and, through our focus on relationships and on the values that shape strong character, we encourage each one to achieve excellence.

INDIGENOUS EDUCATION

Inspired by the many Indigenous-led movements across North America, We Are Water Protectors issues an urgent rallying cry to safeguard the Earth's water from harm and corruption—a bold and lyrical picture book written by Carole Lindstrom and vibrantly illustrated by Michaela Goade. This book received the Randolph Caldecott Medal for the most distinguished American picture book for children January 25 at the American Library Association awards.

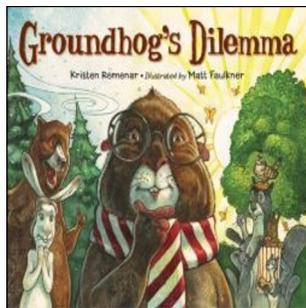

LITERACY CORNER

Guessing whether or not the groundhog will see his shadow on February 2 is one of our country's most fun—and funniest!—traditions. From books about the history and customs behind the day to silly stories about groundhogs who decide to go on strike, there are many titles that teach about all things Groundhog Day! Check out these two selections!!

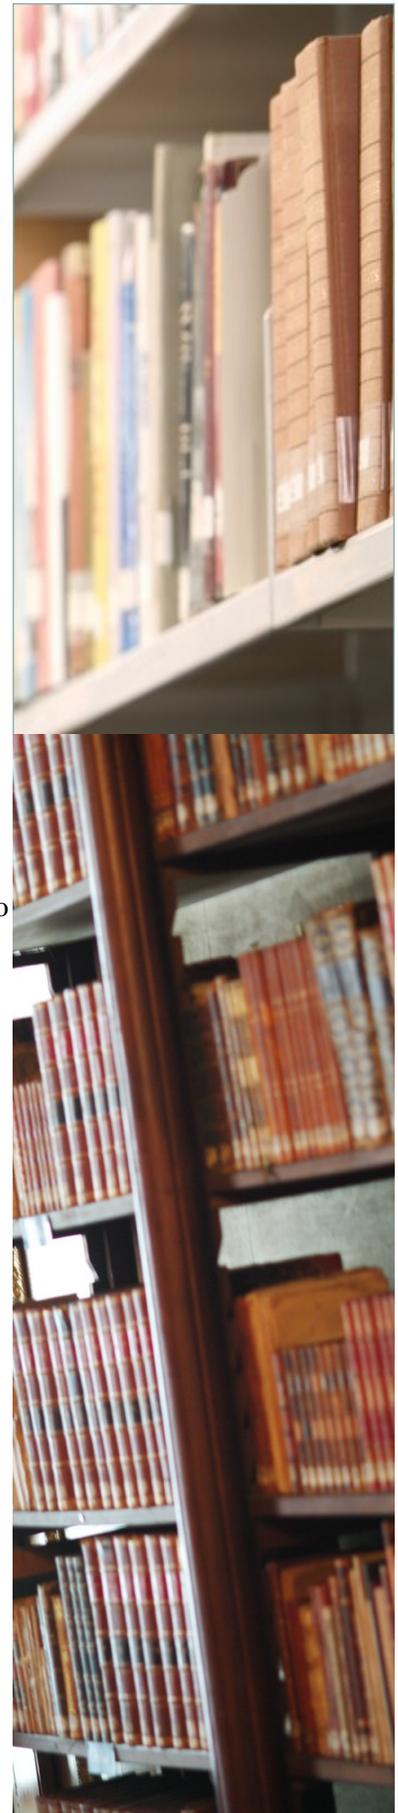

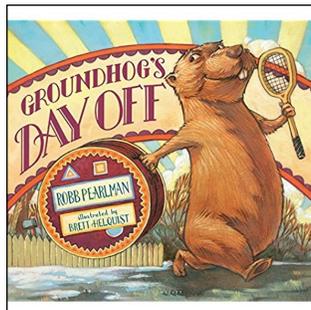

Groundhog's Dilemma

by Kristen Remenar is a story about a groundhog who announces six more weeks of winter. When he does this, half his animal friends are disappointed, while the other half are excited. Each animal asks Groundhog to make his prediction in their favor the following year. Rather than being truthful about the fact that he just "calls it like he sees it," he leads them to believe he can control the weather,

Groundhog's Day Off

by Robb Pearlman is a story about a groundhog who packs his bags and sets out for a much-needed vacation. Now the town is holding auditions to find someone to fill his spot. None of the animals seem right for the job, though. Not Elephant, not Ostrich, and most
