CLASS OF 2021

“Be bold enough to use your voice, brave enough to listen to your heart and strong enough to live the life you’ve always imagined.”

Literacy Corner

Over the summer, choose books on the grade level your child will be going into. (Unless you know that your child needs modifications up or down.) Reading—lots and lots of reading—is the only way to keep kids growing as readers. But kids need lots of good books. That’s why we wanted to share some book lists.

Indigenous Education

June 21 is National Indigenous Peoples Day. This is a day for all Canadians to recognize and celebrate the unique heritage, diverse cultures and outstanding contributions of First Nations, Inuit and Métis peoples. The Canadian Constitution recognizes these three groups as Aboriginal peoples, also known as Indigenous peoples.

Although these groups share many similarities, they each have their own distinct heritage, language, cultural practices and spiritual beliefs.

In cooperation with Indigenous organizations, the Government of Canada chose June 21, the summer solstice, for National Aboriginal Day, now known as National Indigenous Peoples Day. For generations, many Indigenous peoples and communities have celebrated their culture and heritage on or near this day due to the significance of the summer solstice as the longest day of the year.
